SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: JOHN DORR claimed he is personally acquainted with RALPH PIERCE, a subject acquitted of original offense, but is not acquainted with other subjects in case. DORR admitted that he posted $5,000. bail bond for subjects in 1943 on request from two friends, not subjects, whose names he does not recall. Bond money from personal funds was delivered in the form of check in the office of a Chicago law firm. The name of the law firm was not recalled but the name of "BARBER" believed to be part of firm's name. A receipt for the bond money was obtained but was surrendered to a bonding company which repaid the money to him upon disposition of the case in court. Repayment of the money to DORR made by some form of check but the details not recalled. DORR claimed he received only the principal back and received no profit or benefit from the transaction. where he was attending the convention of the Florida Trailercoach Dealers' Association. Mr. DORR advised that he is the owner of the DORR TRAILER SALES with offices in Chicago, Illinois, Miami, Florida, Louisville and Lexington, Kentucky. He advised that his home is 14 West Elm Street, Chicago, Illinois, and that he also has a home at 1225 N. W. 36th Street, Miami, Florida, where he is now living. He advised that he is planning to return to Chicago for a short time around November 1, 1947, but may not be able to leave Miami at that time because of business ties there.

Mr. DORR stated that most of his business is transacted with race horse people who purchase his trailers in order to follow the races. He stated that he finances all sales where the buyer is unable to pay cash for the trailers.

Mr. DORR advised that he was personally acquainted with a RALPH PIERCE who was a subject in the original offense for which the subjects were tried several years ago. He stated that PIERCE was acquitted in court and that he was not then, and is not now acquainted with other subjects in this case. Mr. DORR claimed that two friends, whose names he could not recall, approached him in Chicago when the case involving subjects was under investigation and asked him to post $5,000. bail bond for the subjects. He claimed that he did not know if this money was to go toward bond for all the subjects or toward bonding any one of the subjects. He claimed RALPH PIERCE, the subject whom he knew, had nothing to do with the request for the money and he didn't know if the money benefitted PIERCE. Mr. DORR stated that he posted the $5,000. bail bond to accommodate the two friends, whose name he could not recall, and that the money was paid over in the office of a Chicago law firm. He claimed he could not recall the name of the law firm but believed the name of "BARBER" was the first name in the title of the firm. He claimed he could not remember who was present at the time of the delivery and to whom he delivered the money. He claimed he delivered the money in the form of a personal check drawn against a personal fund maintained in a bank at Charlestown, Indiana. He could not recall the date on which he posted the bond but stated that it was at the beginning of the case in which the subjects were involved.

Mr. DORR claimed that he obtained a receipt as security for the money posted at the time he delivered the money in the law firm of Chicago. He could not recall any details concerning the nature of the receipt or who signed the receipt. He stated that upon conclusion of the trial of subjects, the money was repaid to him by a Surety Company. He claimed that he couldn't recall the name of the Surety Company or the exact method of repayment. He did recall that repayment was by some sort of a check. He claimed that only the principal was repaid him and that he did not realize any profit or other benefit for the use of the money.

Mr. DORR claimed that he was not acquainted with an Attorney BERNSTEIN mentioned in referenced teletype. Mr. DORR denied that he had ever posted any bond or paid out any money or rendered assistance in any manner to the subjects of this case, directly or indirectly, at any time except as set out previously in this report. He denied any knowledge concerning the settlement of any tax cases in which the subjects were involved. He also denied that he knew anything concerning the parole of subjects or any negotiations concerning parole for subjects. He stated that he read in the Miami, Florida, newspapers where the subjects were out of prison, but stated that what he read in these newspapers constituted all he knew of this matter. He was unable to give any details of the time or the exact information he read in the papers.

Mr. DORR denied that he is or has been connected with or related to the subjects in any manner. He was definite in his statements that he did not know any of the subjects except PIERCE mentioned above. He claimed that he was a Chrysler and Plymouth automobile dealer in Chicago for many years and that he may have sold the subjects automobiles during that time. He claimed that he was not positive about this and would not elaborate on his statement in this regard. He admitted that he was positive that the subjects were in the rackets around Chicago but claimed he did not know the nature of the substantive violations in which the subjects were involved and for which they were later tried.

Mr. DORR advised that he could be located, in the future, at his Chicago or Miami address as set out in this report in the event further contact with him is desired.

This report is being carried in a pending status in view of a teletype from the Chicago Office requesting the Miami Office to conduct additional investigation.

verdict of guilty was found against all defendants on trial and named the defendant as LOUIS COMPAGNA, PAUL DE LUCIA, PHIL D'ANDREA, FRANCIS MARITOTE, CHARLES GIOE, JOHN ROSELLI and LOUIS KAUFMAN. In this letter, it is reported December 30, 1943 was set as the date of sentence.

BORIS KOSTELANETZ, by letter dated December 31, 1943, advised the Attorney General the above-named subjects had been sentenced ten years and $10,000 fine each, with the exception of LOUIS KAUFMAN, who had received seven years and $10,000 fine.

In this letter it is stated Judge BRIGHT granted bail pending appeal only as to KAUFMAN and denied bail as to the other defendants.

A letter dated February 17, 1945, addressed to Honorable CHARLES FAHY, Solicitor General of the United States and signed by BENJAMIN D. STEIN on the stationery of Pinto and Marcantonio, 11 Park Place, New York City, advised notice of the filing of a petition for a writ of certiorari for FRANCIS MARITOTE had been filed in the Supreme Court of the United States on February 12, 1945.

The following letter dated May 11, 1945, addressed to the Honorable TOM C. CLARK, at that time Assistant Attorney General, was written by BORIS KOSTELANETZ, Special Assistant to the Attorney General:

"Re: United States v. COMPAGNA, et al
(Your reference: TCC:WAP:MN)

"I wish to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated May 5, 1945, enclosing communications from one HAROLD V. SMITH, business representative, International Sound Technicians, to Senators JAMES E. MURRAY, RICHARD B. RUSSELL, and BRIEN McMAHON, together with notations from the respective Senators. Your letter of May 5 errs in referring to mail fraud indictments against GEORGE BROWNE and WILLIAM BIOFF. The facts are briefly as follows:

"On March 18, 1943, the United States Grand Jury for the Southern District of New York filed two indictments charging violations of the Anti-Racketeering Act and of the Mail Fraud Statute. The first indictment named nine defendants: FRANK NITTO, LOUIS COMPAGNA, PAUL DE LUCIA, PHIL D'ANDREA, FRANCIS MARITOTE, CHARLES GIOE, RALPH PIERCE, JOHN ROSSELLI and LOUIS KAUFMAN. The second indictment, charging mail fraud and relating to a union 2% Assessment Fund, named all the foregoing individuals as defendants except KAUFMAN.

BRIBERY; PAROLE MATTERS.

Reference is made to the letters from the Chicago and New York Divisions dated December 13, 1947, summarizing the information received from technical surveillances presently in operation in those Divisions.

The summaries as contained in these letters are not sufficiently detailed so that the Bureau can determine satisfactorily the results being secured from these sources. In future communications to the Bureau summarizing the results secured from the technical surveillances employed in this case, it is desired that the total number of telephone calls made and received over each telephone covered be noted. You should also report the number of calls which are of no significance. For example, if 20 of 52 calls made were to local business concerns supplying such things as groceries, drugs, clothing, etc., a simple statement to this effect will suffice. All other calls should be briefly summarized. If several calls apply to the same subject matter, they may, of course, be combined in one summary statement.

You should continue to report to the Bureau by separate letter or teletype, as the circumstances warrant, details as to any call noted which is particularly pertinent. The New York and Chicago Divisions should exchange copies of all summary letters submitted to the Bureau. It is also desired that the Chicago Division make available to the New York Division copies of any pertinent reports in this case not presently in the possession of that office so that the New York Division will be in a position to evaluate properly information received from the technical surveillances being employed. Any doubt as to the pertinency of any material obtained should be resolved in favor of transmitting it to the Bureau.

Att: Mr. Werthy Re: Philip D'Andrea

Dear Sir:

In the first instance, if I have misspelled your name you will please excuse because I find no place in my file that I recorded your name in connection with the above entitled matter and am directing this letter to your attention purely by recollection of having met you.

You will recall at the time I had a conference with you that we spoke of a second indictment that was then existing against Philip D'Andrea and others. I would like to be advised by return mail as to the status of that indictment. In other words has the said indictment been disposed of or is it still pending in your office.

Your advices will be appreciated.

Respectfully yours,

TO : Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

DATE: December 8, 1947

FROM : Peyton Ford, Acting The Assistant to the Attorney General

TVQ:RPW:lbb

SUBJECT: Louis Campagna, with aliases, et al. Bribery; Parole matters.

Replying to your memorandum of December 1, 1947, entitled as above, the names of those persons other than the five parolees and Ricci, which were included in the November 26, 1947 request for technical surveillances, were so included because of their close relationship to the principal subjects which suggested that like surveillances as to them would be productive of valuable information. Such surveillances, therefore, are requested.

The investigation requested was not intended to be limited solely to matters relating to bribery or other malfeasance in connection with parole matters, but was intended to include other matters relating to possible violations of federal law on the part of the subjects or others connected with them.

BUSBEY ASKS FBI DATA ON PAROLES QUIZ

Says Clark Bars Its Release

BY JAMES DOHERTY

Full disclosure of all data obtained by the federal bureau of investigation in its interviews with 275 persons, concerning charges that cash and politics were back of the federal paroles given to the four high-ranking Capone gangsters, was demanded yesterday by Rep. Fred E. Busbey (R., Ill.). Busbey, just back from Washington, said the congressional investigation of the "scandalous paroles" was hampered by the refusal of Atty. Gen. Clark to cooperate.

Busbey said he asked the FBI to help congress sift reports concerning the use of a huge "slush fund" and the "switching" of thousands of votes to get Paul Ricca, Louis Campagna, Charles Gioe and Phil D'Andrea out of federal prison. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, has completed his inquiry, Busbey said, but Clark has forbidden Hoover to tell congress what he learned.

Sees Pressure

"It is evident that tremendous pressure is being brought to bear to halt or delay congress in its endeavor to find ut why these men were freed from prison," Busbey said. "Congress wants to question Clark's close personal friend, Atty. Maury Hughes of Dallas, Tex., about these paroles.

"The investigating committee wants more data on the part played in the release of the prisoners by Atty Paul Dillon of St. Louis, Mo., who boasted of his friendship with President Truman.

Hopes for Indictments

"Clark has instigated an inquiry in Chicago, by the federal grand jury, and it is the hope of Rep. Clare Hoffman (R., Mich.), chairman of our committee, and of others, that some indictments may result from this grand jury action."

The congressman said it is the intention of his group to resume hearings on the parole matter soon after the first of the year.

Busbey at WJOL Hearing To Seek Parole Case Link

Congressman Fred Busbey, Chicago Republican, said he's trying to learn whether there was a link between the parole of four Capone gangsters and the race news broadcasts by WJOL in Joliet.

He is attending the Joliet hearing by the Federal Communications Commission on the station's petition for a renewed license.

'I have no definite information to link them,' Busbey said. 'I'm here to find out if there was any link.'

He did not explain what kind of a tieup there might have been.

Police Complaint

A complaint on file against WJOL was made by Ernest Overbey, then police chief, who said broadcasts encouraged local gambling.

Robert Bowles, the station's general manager, testified Monday that broadcasts were stopped last February when the FCC told him of objections.

Robert Philbin, WJOL sports editor, said an FCC officer in Chicago had advised him that such a program was legal.

The paroled Capone men are Louis Campagna, George Cioe, Paul Delucia and Phil D'Andrea. They were convicted of a $1,000,000 movie industry extortion.

A congressional committee of which Busbey is a member is probing the paroles.

The following brief identifying data is being set forth concerning the individuals on whom technical surveillances were requested by the Department in their memorandum of December 8.

JOE CORNGOLD is a partner of Willie Heeney in a tavern and bookie joint at 5914 West Cermak Road, Chicago. Heeney admitted he gave $10,000 to Corngold to be used as part payment of a tax claim against Subject Campagna. Corngold refused to answer any questions when interviewed concerning this but implied that he may have put up some money in this regard to help a friend.

JOE FUSCO is an executive of the Gold Seal Liquor Company, Chicago. He contributed $50,000 toward the bail bonds of subjects when they were originally arrested on the Anti-Racketeering Statute. When interviewed, he refused to answer any questions concerning contribution of funds to settle the income tax claims against subjects. He did remark that occasionally a man in his position is called upon to do things he would prefer not to do but can not very well decline to do.

JACK GUZIK, reportedly successor to Al Capone as czar of gambling in Chicago, was alleged to have visited subjects in prison. He denied this upon interview and investigation sustained this. The Whitney allegation was to the effect that Guzik was to raise $300,000 to effect the paroles. Guzik denied having any part in effecting the paroles. He denied giving any money to George Bieber, Chicago attorney who, according to Whitney's allegation, was to make the pay-off.

FRANCIS J. CURRY is reportedly a gambler and racketeer in Joliet, Illinois and is said to be the protege of Eddie Vogel, notorious Chicago hoodlum. He visited DeLucia while the latter was in prison and operated DeLucia's 1100 acre farm in Illinois while the latter was in prison.

ANTHONY (JOE) ACCARDO is a Chicago hoodlum frequently described as the leader of the Chicago underworld. Investigation established that Accardo visited subjects DeLucia and Campagna while they were in prison posing as Joseph Bulger, a Chicago attorney. An extended investigation was conducted to locate Accardo who, when interviewed, declined to talk.

EDWARD J. PARISE is a former Brooklyn, New York, tavern owner and known associate of underworld characters. He requested Congressional aid in an effort to see Subject Campagna in prison. When interviewed after finally being located, Parise said he wanted to see Campagna since they were boyhood friends in Brooklyn. Campagna's wife loaned him $2400 with which to buy a car for which she made arrangements allegedly because of favors extended her in a personal way by Parise.

JOLIET RADIO EYED IN GANG PAROLES QUIZ

Ricca Sponsor in Spotlight, Too

BY JAMES DOHERTY

Horse race broadcasting over station WJOL at Joliet and the part, if any, played by Francis Curry of that city in procuring federal paroles for four members of the notorious Capone-Ricca-Guzik gang sent Congressman Fred E. Busbey (R. Ill.) on an investigating tour, he reported yesterday. He was accompanied by ex-Chief Ernest E. Overbey of the Joliet police.

The federal communications commission was conducting a hearing in Joliet on an application by station WJOL for a renewal of its license. Overbey testified that for many months last year the radio station furnished Joliet race results and gambling figures all afternoon, which "stimulated gambling" and aided the Joliet racketeers.

Opposed Race News

Overbey told Congressman Busbey he believed he was ousted from his job last October because he had opposed the radio race news broadcasting program, and because of the activity of Curry. He said Curry was known as a slot machine boss in Will county and as manager of the farm of Paul Ricca, "king of the gangsters" and one of the four whose paroles were reported to have cost a "king's ransom."

"Shortly before the murder of James Ragen, head of a race news distributing station, in Chicago in 1946, the Capone gang set up a rival race news distributing station in Joliet," Overbey told Busbey. "I raided it, and Curry threatened to get me fired.

U. S. Ignores Reputation

"The warden of Leavenworth prison wrote me, asking to know Curry's reputation. He said Ricca, who then was in that federal penitentiary, wanted to write to Curry. I told the warden Curry was a racketeer, but had no criminal record, and was supposed to be the agent of the Chicago gambling syndicate.

"However, the government permitted Curry to be sponsor for Ricca's parole. Until Ricca's release from prison last August, Joliet residents thought Curry owned the 1,100 acre farm near there that is now known to be Ricca's. But Curry does own another farm nearby.

"When race news service over telephones was stopped, the bookies were able to do business with the aid of radio broadcasting. I complained to Robert Bowles, manager of the station, and he sent me a letter the tone of which I didn't like. I sent his letter to the federal communications commission, along with a copy of my letter to him."

Probe Radio Ownership

Congressman Busbey said he was interested in having the present and past ownership of the radio station established by the FCC. He said Willard H. Erwin Jr. of Charleston, W. Va., was the majority stockholder, and that members of his family were his partners.

The present management of the station told Examiner Fannie Litvin of the FCC that it had discontinued "for all time" the broadcasting of race results. Busbey said he was interested in whether it is possible for the Ricca gang to use radio as an aid to their gambling monopoly.

"It looks to me as tho Chief Overbey is a victim of his opposition to the gambling syndicate," the congressman added. "We will probably subpena him to testify at the parole inquiry conducted by the committee of which Congressman Clare E. Hoffman (R., Mich.) is chairman."

Memo to Mr. Rosen

It is noted that investigation at Chicago has disclosed a possible violation of the Veterans' Priority Regulations under the Federal Housing Program by Anthony Accardo. It appears that Accardo utilized the priority of his brother, a veteran, to construct a house for Accardo's parents.

ACTION

These data are supplied for your information. Further investigation is being conducted to determine the relationship between Accardo, Bernstein, and the five parolees. Additional technical surveillances have been requested by the Department which is reconsidering the request in the light of information furnished by the Bureau. The USA at Chicago has requested further investigation and indicates that he will have further requests along this line. These requests are being cleared with the Attorney General before any action is taken.

Developments in the course of the captioned investigation during the past week are summarized as follows:

TECHNICAL SURVEILLANCES

Technical surveillances are in operation on subjects, Campagna, DeLucia, and Gioe, as well as Tony Ricci, Brooklyn, New York. These surveillances have produced little information of value since their installation. In a conversation between the wife of Subject Campagna and Father Canning, who wrote the Parole Board in behalf of Campagna, it was indicated by Father Canning "You have nothing to worry about" and "I have talked to some pretty big men". Father Canning also talked to the daughter of Subject DeLucia who is to be married in the near future. The technical surveillance on Subject Gioe indicated that he has a contact in the Revenue Department of the State of Illinois in Chicago who is apparently in a position to supply him with information from the records of that Department. The technical surveillance on Tony Ricci in Brooklyn has indicated that he is in some type of racket, although no definite information along this line has been revealed.

INVESTIGATION REQUESTED BY USA, CHICAGO

To establish the relationship between Eugene Bernstein, Anthony Accardo, and the five parolees, records of the TWA and Braniff Airlines have been checked, and the various Airline hostesses on flights on which these individuals apparently utilized have been interviewed. The only positive information received was from one TWA hostess who stated that Bernstein was definitely a passenger on a flight between Kansas City and Chicago on August 13, 1947. It was definitely recalled by this hostess that Bernstein was accompanied by five men and while the photographs of Campagna and Accardo seemed familiar to her, she was unable to definitely identify the individuals accompanying Bernstein.

It is noted that five subjects of this case were actually paroled on August 13, 1947.

EX-109 RECORDED & INDEXED 58-2000-630

Investigation at the Muehlbach Hotel in Kansas City had disclosed that the reservation for Bernstein made there on August 12, 1947, was actually made by another guest at the hotel, a Frank Murphy. Murphy's address, according to the hotel records, is 3100 Sheridan Road, Chicago. Investigation at this address has disclosed that no individual by the name, Frank Murphy, is known there but that this is the address of the Fischetti Brothers. One of the telephone calls charged to the hotel room of the individual known as Frank Murphy was made to a Henry Steinborn of Chicago. The USA at Chicago has indicated he contemplates subpoenaing [redacted] for testimony before the Grand Jury relative to the identity of [redacted]

December 29, 1947

It is noted in the letter of reference dated December 18, 1947 that the St. Louis Division was merely requested to make available to the Bureau and office receiving copy of that communication, any information readily available concerning WALTER HUNAN with whom the wife of TONY RICCI communicated on December 10, 1947. As previously indicated herein the person who called St. Louis on that date actually talked with WALLACE RENARD and an examination of the city and telephone directories and other sources disclosed no information whatever concerning anyone named HUNAN in St. Louis or St. Louis County, Missouri, therefore no further action will be taken by the St. Louis Division until receipt of additional instructions from the Bureau.

C: Hello.
W: Hello [illegible], [illegible] (Ph.) how are you?

C: O.K. How are you?
W: All right. Where were you in bed?

C: No, I told you the one bed is broken; I was in the living room...
W: Oh...

C: See so when the phone rings by the time I get up and put on my house slippers it's got to keep ringing you know...
W: Yeah.

C: How do you feel?
W: All right; how are you?

C: Oh, fine.
W: That's good.

C: Looks like it's a nice day, but cold, eh?
W: Oh, it's beautiful out.

C: It's real cold, isn't it?
W: Yeah, I know - I was outside washing windows you know...

C: Oh, my G-- today?
W: Yeah, and it almost blew me off the sill.

C: Oh, it is windy?
W: Yeah, pretty windy.

C: Oh, because last night I heard the wind and it made a lot of noise - you can't hear it today.
W: Well, MIRIAM (Ph.) was cute - she came in so cold...

C: Uh, huh.
W: She's so healthy - G-- bless her...

C: Oh, yeah.
W: So I said you know usually in the morning I want to put a sweater underneath...

C: Yes.
W: And she wouldn't let me put it on this morning...

C: Oh, because...
W: She comes home; she says gee, Mommy I'm sorry I didn't listen to you, it's cold.

C: Oh, she'd let you put the sweater on this afternoon, eh?
W: Yes, sure.

C: It's about 32 I imagine.
W: Yeah, I think that's what the...

C: It's just about freezing you know.
W: The fellow on the radio said.

C: Yes.
W: Yeah.

C: They say it was going to get real cold...
W: Yes.

C: Said it too last night.
W: Well, yesterday was freakish weather anyway.

C: Yeah, that's right it was so warm and then it started to cool off at night...
W: Yes.

C: How were the kids when you got home? All right?
W: Well, they weren't home; they were in the movies...

C: Oh, fine.
W: And I went to get them...

C: Uh, huh.
W: So ALENE (Ph.) didn't want to come out the first time. So I said why don't you want to come out? She says well, they're all movies here. They didn't show me a comedy yet...

C: Oh, they didn't show her a cartoon yet?
W: That's right.

C: Uh, huh.
W: So I had to give my pass to the fellow in the booth - you know he's the Assistant Manager...

W: Yes.
W: And, he said what is the little girl crying about? I said well, she claims she hasn't seen a cartoon...

C: Uh, huh.
W: And he said, well, you tell her to come Sunday and we'll put an extra one on for her...

C: Uh, huh. (Laughs) Isn't that...
W: They usually have five.

C: They'll have five Sunday?
W: Yes.

C: Well, I guess they just didn't give her any...
W: Well, they probably...

C: Probably their program is real long...
W: And not only that they didn't think children would be there yesterday, you know...

C: Uh, huh.
W: They didn't know it was a holy day...

C: Oh, oh, I see.
W: You see?

C: Oh, I see...
W: They usually when a child is off on you know any holiday...

C: Yeah.
W: They usually add...

C: Oh, they have an extra program...
W: That's right.

C: For them?
W: Yes, so when I came home...

C: Uh, huh.
W: I prepared their dinner and [illegible] and ADELE both started to talk at once; I said now listen one at a time...

C: Uh, huh.
W: [illegible] wanted to talk all about the picture she had seen...

C: Oh...
W: And ADELE wanted to know all about the luncheon...

C: Oh, I see.
W: I said who wants to talk first - so they both said me...
C: Uh, huh.

W: You know then I said well, we'll see what ADELE wants to say so I said all right, CHARLIE? She said yeah, so I said what do you want ADELE? She said to me did you have a nice time?

C: Uh, huh.
W: I said yes. She said did you go to your luncheon? I said yes. What did you eat? I said fish. She said well today isn't Friday...

C: Uh, huh.
W: She couldn't understand why we ate fish...

C: Oh, fish - well, we didn't have any choice as far as lunch was concerned yesterday. It was one of those things...
W: That's right and I explained it to them...

C: Uh, huh, because ordinarily you go and you have a bender and you pick whatever you want, you know...
W: Yeah.

C: Like any of that stuff...
W: It was good though, wasn't it, CHARLIE?

C: What?
W: I enjoyed it.

C: But, it was good. I mean as long as we saw the show - I wanted to see it, you know?
W: Yeah.

C: See otherwise I mean ordinarily I mean that way I wouldn't want to go because I want to go where I can order what I like and eat and drink what I like...
W: That's right.

C: You know?
W: Well, PAT (Ph.) came home and I was sleeping you know...

C: Uh, huh.
W: I didn't undress - I was just on top of the bed...

C: Yes.
W: And I woke up and he wanted to know all about it, and I told him; he said boy, it sounds like you had a good time. I said we enjoyed it very much...

C: Uh, huh.
W: And he was glad.

C: Well, that's good. No, I enjoyed it very much. I was telling TONY last night - I was telling him about ADELE telling you...

W: Yeah.

C: And I had given you her permission - I didn't tell her you were going anywhere for you to take her as long as I was going to be there...
W: Yes, that's right.

C: So he laughed, you know...
W: Yeah.

C: He says oh, she's just a little devil; she just has to be watched. You never know what she's going to say. Do you know what she said to him on Sunday?
W: No.

C: MARY ANN (Ph.) was kidding with him and gave him some picture on her tracer...
W: Yes.

C: To compare whether he likes PAT or me which one he likes better, see?
W: No kidding?

C: Yeah, MARY ANN you see...
W: Yes.

C: So ADELE looks at him and she said sure that's why you married her...
W: Oh. (Laughs)

C: He says they're both --- (Ind.) little ADELE you'd never know what's going to come out of her...
W: Yes.

C: And they're liable to turn around especially you know I mean it's a good thing we speak in Ghetto (?) - they don't know what we're talking about...
W: That's right; they'll learn soon enough though, you know...

C: Yes.
W: Yeah.

C: Eventually sure because I mean even -- (Ind.) and tell everything we said about her. She's --- (Ind.) you know...
W: Yes.

C: To be glad she can say that you know...
W: That's right. Well, she wanted to go out so and I said well, if you want to go go ahead, you know, when I had the window open...

C: Yeah.
W: So it's too cold - I don't want to go out...

C: Oh, she did?
W: Yeah.

C: Oh, it's a pity - beautiful day for her to be out...
M: Yeah, well, she - see I'm making some sauce - how about having dinner with us?

C: When today?
M: Are you going out tonight?

C: No, we're not going out. I don't know what to say because you see - oh, if you're making sauce for spaghetti...
M: Yeah.

C: Oh, honey, we better not; I'll tell you why because both - TONY said he is definitely going for at least a week or ten days on a diet - no spahetti or anything...
M: Oh.

C: And, in fact, I mean he can get some canned ham, you know...
M: Uh, huh.

C: And, in fact, he even said something about boiling that ham tonight and I figure by the time he comes home tonight, I'll cut it...
M: Yes.

C: And open up a can and I'll put a little pineapple juice on it...
M: Very good.

C: And broil it, see?
M: Yeah.

C: And that's going to be real tasty, you see...
M: Well, ginger ale is good over it too, CLAIRE...

C: Which is better pineapple - I imagine the pineapple broiled in it is good too...
M: Well, they're both good. It's all according to what teast you want...

C: Yeah. Well, I think I would like the pineapple - it's a little fruity, you know...
M: Yeah.

C: And, I think I'll get - see we have other fruit - I guess any fruit, but I think pineapple would be about the best...
M: Yes, that is the best.

C: And, I'll put it on - do you know - I mean that ham can have that little sweet taste...
M: Oh, yeah.

C: You see?
M: Are you going to use some cloves too?

C: What honey?
W: Are you going to put some cloves on it?

C: Cloves? No.
W: Yeah.

C: Shall I put some?
W: Yeah, on the ham, sure. That would be Virginia style...

C: Oh, I see with the pineapple now what do I do? Buy the c oves at...
W: In a store.

C: At the grocery...
W: Yeah.

C: Just ask for cloves and just spray it very lightly, eh?
W: No, you insert the cloves...

C: Oh, you insert the cloves - where in the meat?
W: That's right...

C: Oh, I see...
W: Then you have to bake it...

C: Oh, then you have to bake it with the pineapple...
W: Yes.

C: How long do you bake it?
W: Well, what is this a canned ham?

C: Uh, huh, it's canned.
W: Well, then it's par boiled - it's boiled already, huh?

C: Yes, and I'll cut it thick - like a ham steak...
W: You just bake that until it gets brown.

C: Oh, I see.
W: Yeah, you don't bake it long.

C: About a half hour because that's already smoked and par boiled and everything...
W: That's right.

C: You see you can eat it raw - you could boil it...
W: Yes.

C: Or any other way.
W: And, so you just bake it and make it nice brown around the top and the ends, you know...

C: Oh, I see and I don't put anything - just let it slide in the pan eh?

: That's right.

C: I don't have to put n butter or anything around it?
: Well, no, I don't...

C: Well, you see there's fat on that...
: That's right, yeah.

C: And, I just put it in the oven and bake it. I'll ut the pineapple and juice around it...
: That's right.

C: I'll put cloves - insert the cloves in the meat...
: Yes.

C: I see. All the way around and nothing else? didn't need any salt or anything?
: Oh, no, the ham - any time you use ham you never use salt on it anyway...

C: That's right; it's a little salty...
: Yeah.

C: And then the combination of the pineapple will give it that sweetness...
: That's right, and if you like brown sugar over it.

C: Oh, well no, that's too sweet...
: No.

C: That's right.
: Yeah.

C: Well, I think I'll do that and then I can bake it - I'll bake it for a half hour because it's already smoked and par boiled...
: Yeah.

C: And what - in just a small light over right about three something?
: Yeah, medium - well do you have the...

C: I have numbers on it.
: Indicator?

C: Yeah.
: You make it 350 or 300...

C: 350 or 300?
: You see you make the oven full blast first to make it good and hot...

C: Oh, yeah...

W: And then you lower it to about 350 that would be about the center of the dial, wouldn't it?

C: Yes.
W: Yeah, just about the center of the dial will be all right...

C: I see 350 and then I'll put it in - well, how long do I keep it on that hot flame?
W: No, you don't - you don't put it on the hot flame - you...

C: I mean how long do I leave it? That's what I mean? How long do I leave the oven like that about five minutes?
W: Yeah, about that time.

C: That will get the oven hot enough and then I'll put it down to 350 and then put that in?
W: Yeah.

C: I see.
W: Yeah.

C: I'll tell you how it comes out because that and a salad will be fine with some coffee...
W: Yes.

C: And I mean thanks loads - I mean I'd love it, but I think I'm going to take it easy with them for about a week...
W: Yeah.

W: Because you know I took some milk of magnesia last night..
W: And I took citrate and cream of tarter...

C: Citrate and cream of tarter? I never heard of that...
W: Well, the Itialians use that - it's citrate of magnesia...

C: Yes, that...
W: And cream of tarter...

C: And, oh, cream of tarter? I know citrate of magnesia is very good. I never heard of the tarter though...
W: Yes, you see one acts as a laxative and the other one acts as an alkalizer...

C: Oh, I see...
W: And being that I've had indigestion...

C: Uh, huh.
W: I thought I'd take it last night. I took it at one o'clock this morning...

C: Oh...

W: And boy, did I burp...

C: Really?
W: So...

C: Well, you know you need something - you must have had a lot of gas there...
W: Yeah, because I've been having pains in my chest - it was all gas...

C: Yeah, you had all gas up there. That's what I was explaining to PATSY (Ph.) in the car...
W: Yes.

C: I said it makes no difference -- (Ind.) when you have indigestion - that's why you take a brom as...
W: That's right. Well, see I went to the druggist yesterday...

C: Uh, huh.
W: And he recommended it...

C: Oh, I see.
W: And it's like crystals, you know - it's not exactly powder - it's - I think you've seen them years ago - you know how they used to have the drug stores years ago with these bottles and...

C: Like that what's her name like that candle candy or something?
W: That's right, yeah...

C: Yes.
W: But, it's not quite as large...

C: Yes, I know what you mean.
W: So it fizzes in the water and he told me don't let the fizz go out - drink that all down...

C: Well, oh, I see and then you don't have a taste just like citrate of magnesia...
W: Yeah.

C: Well, that's an idea. I think I'll get that - that's good for TINY too, you know...
W: Yeah...

P: Yes.

P: --- (Ind.) whatever the h--- it just goes to show you those chiselers...
T: Yeah.

P: If they chisel long enough they'll get themselves in a trap...
T: Uh, huh.

P: They must have went around and mostly - likely chiseled that fellow...
T: Uh, huh.

P: So I called yesterday.
T: Yeah, I know...

P: I wanted to make doubly sure...
T: Yeah.

P: That's why I told GEORGE to tell you to call me this morning...
T: Yeah, yeah.

P: So far I haven't h-ard anything, but it will be alri ht.
T: Well yeah.

P: Later on today if you want to TONY - any time before twelve, you can give me a call...
T: Yes.

P: See I asked GEORGE if he liked the place and he told me he liked it and all...
T: Yeah.

P: So what the h--- let him have that...
T: Yeah.

P: Because he's been crowded out in the -- (Ind.)...
T: Yeah.

P: You see?
T: Yeah, that's right.

P: Yeah, but that's really one for the books though, huh?
T: Yes.

P: You know what I mean? I don't know what the h—— the guy gave him, but you know what he did, but he most likely had an attraction there and the guy I guess thought it would never leak out...
T: Yeah.

P: Whoever the h—— that he is he loused himself up good...
T: Is that right, huh?

P: Yeah, he loused hirself up good.
T: You see whenever he went over there the kid went over and he says well, I was sent here by you know...

P: Yes.
T: The fellow you told him to mention you know...

P: Yeah.
T: And he says well, I don't know a thing about it and he says I'm sorry - I don't think he'll be able to work you know...

P: Yes.
T: So the kid said well, gee whiz he says can't you get in touch with - he says I know that fellow could fence (???) you over for the name you gave him and the kid says well can't you call him - try to contact -- (Ind.) - we gave that thing out to everybody and we'll get in an awful mess, you know...

P: Yeah.
T: So the guy tried to contact and see but he can't so he said well, I don't know. You work today he says to the kid - he says, but don't come back Monday unless it's all right you know...

P: Yeah.
T: So the kid says well, I'm sure that that party will contact you before Monday, you know...

P: Yeah.
T: So he says all right if he contacts me it's all right, but otherwise he says we'll let you work there because you came over from our kid and it looks like you got the right dope, you know...

P: Yeah.
T: He says you go ahead and work for today - for today only...

P: Yeah.
T: So as it turned out so I figured well, by that time the other fellow would get in touch with him and straighten things out with him, you know...

P: Yeah.
T: So I guess that's the way it stood you know...

P: Yeah see I don't know what the h--- --- (Ind.) will be in today - I got a feeling - I thought I'd give him a call and sort of find out how the place was...
T: Uh, huh.

P: And if he liked it you know....

Dear Sir:

ATTENTION: ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, A. ROSEN

Reference is made to my letter of December 13, 1947.

There are enclosed herewith the original and two copies of the transcripts of information furnished by Confidential Informant NYT 466 covering the period from December 5, 1947 to December 9, 1947. The transcript of the long distance call from CLEO RICCI to WALTER HUNAN of Saint Louis on December 10, 1947 was previously submitted. Two copies of these transcripts are also being furnished the Chicago Division by this letter.

It is noted that a review of the enclosed transcripts does not disclose any information of apparent interest to the case under investigation.

These calls are all local and concerning local activity of RICCI. It is noted that RICCI and the persons with whom he speaks are cautious and furtive in their manner. TONY RICCI's conversation, however, with the unknown PHIL of the George Washington Hotel on December 9, 1947 indicates that RICCI is in a position to effect a "fix" in regard to "hearings" which may conceivably be taking place before some local court or administrative body.

Re: LOUIS CAMPAGNA

While a great many telephone calls are made and received at the residence of Louis Campagna, a large majority involve members of his family and concern personal domestic matters. The following telephone calls do not appear to fall within this category and may possibly be of some significance.

Joseph Colosimo, Federal Probation Officer at Chicago, telephonically contacted subject's wife on December 12, 1947 stating that it was permissible for subject Campagna to make his anticipated trip, but it would be necessary for him to submit a letter before leaving. In this regard Campagna contacted individuals identified as Vinni, Mary and Aunt Louise in Brooklyn, New York, telephonically on December 24, 1947, at which time he indicated that he hoped to make a trip to Brooklyn next month and would possibly know something definite by the 5th or 6th of the month. Campagna also told his wife he would make the trip after the holidays.

In talking with a Lou Benedick (phonetic spelling) on December 13, 1947, Campagna discussed an undisclosed amount of money which Benedick supposedly sent to an individual identified only as Andy. Benedick mentioned he received a receipt and that Coliani (phonetic) signed a receipt and Benedick put it in an envelope and mailed it to Andy.

On the same date an individual identified only as Mike used subject Campagna's telephone in calling a "Rocky" at a tavern at 4700 Cermak Road, Cicero, Illinois. However, he was advised "Rocky" was not there.

On December 14, 1947 a telephone call was received by a person named Mabel from Tony Ricci, who wanted to know "if they were up in the country". He was advised they would return in the middle of the week and did not leave a message. A technical surveillance maintained on Tony Ricci confirmed that he was the individual making this call.

Louis Campagna telephonically contacted the office of Attorney Eugene Bernstein on December 18, 1947, requesting that Bernstein call him at his home. On the same date an unidentified individual in the Campagna residence talked at length with a person calling who was identified only as "Fat". The conversation concerned generally property "slips", which might possibly refer to personal property tax slips. These individuals discussed the political situation in Illinois at some length and made vague references to a person by the name of Sabath, whose name was mentioned in connection with an unidentified project which was allegedly "dead" because of high pressure politics. It is possible that the Sabath referred to may be Congressman Adolph J. Sabath.

On December 21, 1947 Tony Ricci of Brooklyn telephonically contacted Louis Campagna. The conversation was not of any significance, but Campagna did indicate his visit to New York City had been postponed until after the New Year.

During the course of a conversation between Charlotte Campagna and individuals apparently relatives of hers in Brooklyn, on December 24, Charlotte asked "Aunt Louise" if Tony (not otherwise identified) had given her those papers, to which Louise replied that she had not seen any. Charlotte then stated, "Well, that's all right", and further advised, "Well, that's what we are going to come out there and talk to you about, you know".

On December 25, 1947 Louis Campagna talked with a person identified only as "Jimmy". Campagna stated that Frank (not otherwise identified) called the day before and that Frank must have called another time while Louis was up in the country. Campagna continued, stating he thought it was better that way because "there are people here watching". Jimmy replied, "Yeah, you have got those spies there". Louis stated, "Yeah, they are watching the cars".

On the same date an individual identified only as "Bert" received a call at Campagna's home from an unidentified man. They discussed the fact that Bert had taken a Civil Service examination for an individual called Bill (last name unknown). Bert was informed by the unknown man that he, Bert, should get "one of those spots". The unknown man said that if Bert should see "Fat" he should tell "Fat" to remind "Moe" not to forget him if "they ever put a judge in there or something like that". The individuals "Fat" and "Moe" were not identified during the course of the conversation.

On December 26, 1947 an individual believed to be Louis Campagna telephonically contacted Dr. Walter Lawrence of Berwyn, Illinois, and Christmas greetings were exchanged.

Re: PAUL DE LUCIA

A large majority of telephone conversations utilizing the telephone in the residence of subject DeLucia are carried on in the Italian language and concern themselves with personal matters involving the family, such as school, shopping, etc. It is noted that DeLucia in one conversation cautioned his caller, an individual identified only as "Willie", not to talk.

On three occasions DeLucia was in telephonic contact with Francis J. Curry of Joliet, Illinois. Their conversations concerned matters pertaining to the operation of DeLucia's farm. On December 22, 1947 they discussed a possible meeting at this farm.

In a conversation on December 26, 1947 between DeLucia and Attorney Eugene Bernstein arrangements were made whereby Bernstein would meet DeLucia at the latter's farm on December 28, 1947. Thereafter DeLucia contacted the residence of Francis Curry and left a message for Curry, who was not in at the time, to meet him on December 27 at the DeLucia farm.

Nancy DeLucia, the wife of subject Paul DeLucia, was in telephonic communication with an individual identified as "Mac", who is possibly Nancy's brother. They talked concerning a loan from Paul DeLucia to "Mac" in order to keep the "picture lounge", 199 North LaSalle Street, apparently Chicago, in operation. It was indicated that "Mac" was the owner of the "picture lounge".

Re: CHARLES GIOE

Only a limited number of telephone calls are made and received on the telephone in the residence of subject Gioe. A large majority of these are made by subject's wife and concern domestic matters.

Charles Gioe contacted an individual identified only as "Happy" at Republican Party Headquarters in Chicago on December 15, 1947. He told "Happy" to make arrangements for an individual identified only as Bill Webb to examine the tax return of an unidentified tavern so that Gioe would know the amount of business done by this tavern. "Happy" directed Gioe to tell Webb to see a Gus Manueli (phonetic) in the Finance Department, Collection Section, of the Revenue Department of Illinois. Manueli was referred to by Gioe as a precinct captain. On the next day Gioe again contacted "Happy" and said that Manueli was unable to supply the tax bills since they were in Springfield. It was indicated that Gioe was interested in a tavern known as the 740 Corporation, located at 740 West Madison Street, Chicago.

On the same date Gioe talked to Ted Stacey (phonetic) about a toothbrush manufacturer, not otherwise identified, and the sale by Gioe to an unknown company, possibly the Consolidated Wire and Associated Companies, of certain equipment. Stacey said that if this equipment were sold to the Consolidated Wire by Gioe, and a profit made, Gioe would be required to pay income tax twice because of the fact that he was selling it to himself.

On December 18 an individual using Gioe's home telephone, and believed to be subject Gioe, contacted an individual identified only as Marsh, apparently an attorney, and discussed in indefinite terms a five-year lease. Gioe referred to the fact that when Sidney gets back he will get in touch with him. The Sidney referred to may possibly be Sidney Korshak.

On December 23, 1947 Gioe contacted an unidentified person whom he called "Rocky". Gioe wished him luck in his new business and referred to the fact that Gioe had straightened out all his obligations. Gioe asked "Rocky" if "Red" was mentioned and was told no. From the conversation it appeared possibly that "Red" and Jimmy Crowley might be identical. While there is no way of definitely ascertaining, it is possible that the Jimmy Crowley referred to may be identical with James Crowley, president of the Chicago Bartenders Union.

Another call on this date was made by an unknown man to a person appearing to be his wife at the LaSalle Hotel, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. During this conversation the woman asked, "How about the police?" and the unknown man answered, "No, I shook that off." These remarks were not amplified during the balance of the conversation which concerned the approaching Christmas holiday.

Re: TONY RICCI

In addition to conversations with other subjects, it is noted that Tony Ricci telephonically contacted Francis J. Curry at Joliet, Illinois, on December 21, 1947. Ricci mentioned that he had contacted "Louie", not otherwise identified, shortly before and "Louie" was anxious to come on to New York. It appears that the "Louie" referred to may be subject Louis Campagna. Curry said during the conversation, apparently in connection with "Louie's" visit to New York, "Yeah, they busted it open here the other day. They came into this town with it." When Curry said, "They are a bunch of (several obscene names)", Tony answered, "Well, I guess that's their job and they are trying to get something possibly that never existed, you know." Curry answered, "Publicity for those politicians".

On the basis of information secured from this technical surveillance, it appears that Francis Curry was visiting in New York City over the Christmas holidays. During that time Curry was in contact with Tony Ricci and Hope Farris. It was also indicated that Hope Farris has been in contact with the Riccis. However, nothing pertinent was learned from the surveillance during the course of these contacts.

TONY FLORIS, waiter No. 41 at the Hotel Muehlebach, advised that he attended the occupants of Room 328 on August 12 and 13 and that the tickets which reflect waiter 41 are in his handwriting. He stated that to the best of his recollection the guests in this room were all men of middle age. However, he was unable to furnish any additional description. The pictures of subjects CAMPAGNA, BERNSTEIN, GIOE, DeLUCIA, CHARLES FISCHETTI and ROCCO FISCHETTI were displayed to waiter FLORIS. However, he was unable to make any identification, although he did state that he faintly remembers subjects BERNSTEIN and CAMPAGNA as being in this room.

FRANK MILLER, Valet Shop, Muehlebach Hotel, stated that he delivered the coat and trousers to an occupant in Room 328 on the day in question. However, he was unable to describe the individual, and he was likewise unable to identify any of the photographs which were displayed to him.

RICHARD WHITE, Bellman 2, Muehlebach Hotel, advised that he delivered the liquor to Room 328 and that the tickets above set out are in his handwriting. He also advised that he was unable to recall the occupants of this room, but to the best of his knowledge he stated that he believed they were eight middle aged men of the "big shot" type and he believed them to be gamblers. He could not remember their appearances, and he was unable to identify any of the photographs which were displayed to him with the exception that he stated the photograph of [illegible]STEIN and CAMPAGNA looked familiar and he believed they were in this room, but he could not be certain.

Room Clerk J. R. FLETCHER was recontacted and photographs of all the above subjects displayed to him, but he was unable to recognize any of them as guests of this hotel. Mr. FLETCHER stated that although the records of the hotel should indicate the check-out time for subjects [illegible]STEIN and one FRANK [illegible], through some error the time was not stamped on their statement. However, as near as it can be ascertained they checked out in the early afternoon on August 13. No other information is available in this regard.

Mr. PETE LAGNO, Assistant to the Manager of Revenue and Receivables Department of the T.W.A. Airline, New York Life Building, checked all available records for additional flights made by subjects between Kansas City and Chicago and vice versa for the days previous and the days following each visit to the Penitentiary by [illegible]STEIN with negative results. The records were not checked, however, for September 4, 1945 and October 18, 1945 for the reason that all flight records are destroyed two years after date of flight. The records were not checked for July 22, 1946 and November 6, 1946 for the reason that it has been previously ascertained that [illegible]STEIN traveled by Braniff Airlines at that time.

Mr. ROBERT McCORMICK, Manager Reservations T.W.A., advised that all reservation charts are destroyed three months after date of flight, and, therefore, he was unable to furnish reservation information for Flight 388, August 13, 1947.

The following list of passengers on Flight 388, August 13, 1947, from Kansas City to Chicago was furnished by Mr. PETE LAGNO and is set out as follows:

Mr. [illegible] advised that the above eighteen passengers boarded this plane in Kansas City, and all of them deplaned in Chicago.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES P. [illegible] at Leavenworth, Kansas:

The records of the U. S. Penitentiary reflect that a total of nine inmates were released August 13, 1947, three of these being the subjects. Of the additional six that were released four of these were released on parole and two were conditionally released. The files for the four individuals that were released on parole were reviewed and the following information obtained.

CHARLIE DAN VERGA - 62806

VERGA was received February 22, 1946, having been sentenced August 2, 1945 at Nancy, France to serve twenty years for desertion, AWOL, Theft by Force and Violence, Theft-Misappropriate Government Gasoline, sentence commencing August 2, 1945. On July 19, 1946 the sentence was changed by a War Department Blue Seal Order to six years, thereby making VERGA eligible for parole on August 1, 1947. The file reflects that VERGA's case was heard by the Parole Board during the July meeting, it being noted that the Board actually met on July 28 and 29, 1947. A tentative date for his parole was set for August 10, 1947 subject to the final approval of the Parole Board. On July 31, 1947 a letter was directed by the Penitentiary to Probation Officer MARSHALL J. McKINLEY, East St. Louis, Illinois, setting forth parole plans for VERGA and requesting investigation and prompt reply in view of his early release date. A letter was sent by the Penitentiary to KEITH K. ULRICH, Parole executive, Washington, D. C., on August 6 making a request for certificate issuance and stating that VERGA's parole was tentatively granted for August 10, 1947 and that due to fifty three days industrial good time which VERGA had earned his release date was past due. An additional letter was sent to Probation Officer McKINLEY on August 6 furnishing details relative to the receipt of employment forms and requested completion of investigation of the parole plan inasmuch as VERGA's release date was past due.

The only criminal record appearing in the file for VERGA is the offense for which he was incarcerated at Leavenworth. The file reflects that he was furnished transportation on the Missouri Pacific Railroad to Herrin, Illinois, and that his wife, ANITA VERGA, resides at 721 N. 20th Street, Herrin, Illinois. On release VERGA was to go to work for JESSE LOGSDON, 112 S. 23rd Street, Herrin, Illinois, as a laborer. Mr. E. C. MARTIN, Chief Clerk, U. S. Penitentiary, advised that the railroad transportation furnished VERGA was not returned to the institution.

EARL E. SHARON, ET. - 62108

SHARON was sentenced on April 20, 1945 at Camp Roberts, Calif. to serve ten years on a charge of Desertion, Escape, and Assault. He was received at Leavenworth on June 16, 1945. His sentence was changed on May 16, 1946 to seven years, and on May 13, 1947 to six years, this change being made by War Department Blue Seal Order.

With respect to parole the file reflects that on June 13, 1947 D. L. WAGLEY, Parole Officer, directed a letter to Probation Officer [illegible] G. SHORT, Kansas City, Missouri, advising that because of the reduction in sentence by the War Department SHARON thereby became eligible for parole on April 19, 1947 and that he would appear before the Parole Board in July 1947. He submitted a parole plan to Probation Officer GROAT and requested that GROAT submit a report relative to the parole plan. On June 25, 1947 HAGLEY was furnished the result of the investigation by the Probation Officer at Kansas City, Missouri. On August 7, 1947 a letter was directed to WALTER K. UNICH, Parole executive, Washington, D. C., making a request for certificate issuance and stating that the parole was granted effective August 10. This certificate was issued August 11, 1947 by the Parole Board, Washington, D. C.

The file reflects SHARON's FBI number as 4338056. His only criminal violation reflected is the military violation for which he was incarcerated at Leavenworth.

The file further reflects that SHARON was furnished transportation by Missouri Pacific bus from Leavenworth to Urbana, Missouri, and that he did not return this bus ticket to the institution. The file also reflects that his father is OTA L. SHARON, Urbana, Missouri. His wife's parents are shown as Mr. and Mrs. JOHN STARKS, 338 McDowell, Kansas City, and that SHARON and his wife did not intend to reunite after his release.

LEON A. EDWARDS - 62101 - alias GARY D. MORLAND

EDWARDS was sentenced June 28, 1945 at Fort Bliss, Texas, on a charge of AWOL, Escape, Forged Checks, and Forge Pass. He was sentenced to serve ten years and was received at Leavenworth, on July 30, 1945. On June 20, 1946 by War Department Blue Seal Order this sentence was changed to five years.

With reference to EDWARDS' parole, the file reflects that his case was heard by the Parole Board during the July 1947 meeting and also reflects that the Army declined clemency and restoration to active duty on May 8, 1947. Employment was secured through the Prison Employment Placement Service with the A. J. Stephens & Company, 2500 E. 14th Street, Kansas City, Missouri. A letter was directed to WALTER K. UNICH, Parole executive, Washington, D. C., August 8, 1947 making a request for certificate issuance, and this certificate was issued August 11, 1947 by the Parole Board, Washington, D. C. His probation officer is shown as LOUIS J. GROAT, Kansas City, Missouri.

The FBI number of EDWARDS is 4400352. The Identification record reflects that he was previously incarcerated at the USDB, Stormville, N. Y. January 11, 1944, charge AWOL, Break Restriction, Make and Utter False Checks, Escape, 10 years. U. S. Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas for the same charge.

KC file 58-75

The file reflects that transportation was furnished to Kansas City, Missouri, exact method of travel not shown. EDWARDS did not return the ticket furnished to him. The file reflects that his wife is MARGARET F. EDWARDS, 720 N. Piedras St., El Paso, Texas. His father is HARVEY L. EDWARDS, 10th Avenue, Brunswick, Maryland. It is believed this individual could be best located by contacting the Probation Officer, Kansas City, Missouri.

PROFIT RANSON - 61802

RANSON was sentenced July 20, 1943 at Algiers, Algeria to life imprisonment on a charge of killing a person by shooting with pistol. He was received at the U. S. Penitentiary, Lewisburg, October 23, 1943 and transferred to Leavenworth 4/25/45. His sentence was changed on September 19, 1945 to fifteen years and on May 27, 1947 to ten years, both of these changes being by War Department Blue Seal Order. As a result of the last change RANSON became eligible for parole November 19, 1946.

With respect to his parole, a letter was directed by the Penitentiary to the U. S. Probation Office at Los Angeles, California on July 31, 1947 advising that RANSON had been before the Parole Board and final decision was not known. The letter set forth a parole plan for RANSON requesting that a check be made to determine whether the plan meets with the approval of the Probation Officer. A letter was directed to HARRY K. UNICH, Parole Executive, Washington, D. C. on August 7, 1947 making a request for certificate issuance. This letter shows that the parole was granted effective August 10, 1947. A certificate was issued by the Parole Board, Washington, D. C., on August 11, 1947. The FBI number of RANSON is 914629.

The following is his identification record as obtained from the FBI identification record available at the Penitentiary:

The investigative report prepared by Special Agent James R. Malley of this Bureau dated October 18, 1947 at Kansas City, Missouri, a copy of which has been previously furnished to you, sets out information received from John James Kucinich, a convict in the United States Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas concerning this case.

Kucinich prefaced his remarks by stating that he had written to Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio in an effort to induce the Senator to intercede with the Parole Board in Washington in an effort to have Kucinich's case reconsidered for parole. Kucinich claims to have received two letters from the Senator in this regard.

A request has now been received by the Chicago Division of this Bureau from United States Attorney Otto Kerner, Jr., for an interview with Senator Taft to obtain a copy of the letter written to him by Kucinich. It will be appreciated if you will advise this Bureau whether you desire that Senator Taft be contacted for this purpose. No action in this regard is being taken pending the receipt of instructions from you.

JAN 13 1948

DEPT. OF JUS

Director, FBI
12/31/47

12/23/47 - Three calls were made by the CAMPAGNA family, all of which were of a personal nature concerning shopping and an invitation to an unknown person to visit the CAMPAGNA home on the following evening. One of the calls was from LOUIS CAMPAGNA to his wife, CHARLOTTE, at Berrien Springs, Michigan.

12/24/47 - Four calls were made and one call was received by LOUIS CAMPAGNA and his family. One of the above calls made by LOUIS and CHARLOTTE CAMPAGNA was to VINNI, MARY and "AUNT LOUISE" in Brooklyn, New York, telephone Windsor 81081. Christmas greetings were extended by all parties in the conversation. Persons in Brooklyn expressed regret that the CAMPAGNAS were unable to spend the holidays in Brooklyn. However, both CHARLOTTE and LOUIS stated they hoped to make the trip to Brooklyn next month and that possibly they would know something definite by the fifth or sixth of the month. CHARLOTTE asked LOUISE if TONY (possibly TONY RICCI) had given her those papers, and LOUISE replied she had not seen any. CHARLOTTE then stated, "Well, that's all right." CHARLOTTE further advised, "Well, that's what we are going to come out and talk to you about, you know."

The remainder of the calls were of a personal nature concerning laundry and Christmas greetings.

12/25/47 - Three calls were made and two received by LOUIS CAMPAGNA and his family. One of the above calls was to LOUIS CAMPAGNA from a person referred to as JIMMY. LOUIS CAMPAGNA stated that FRANK (possibly FRANCIS CURRY) called the day before and that FRANK must have called another time while LOUIS was up in the country. CAMPAGNA continued, stating he thought it was better that way because "there are people here watching." JIMMY replied, "Yea, you got those spies there." LOUIS stated, "Yea, they are watching the cars." The remainder of the conversation pertained to the new year and the possibility of making more money and that JIMMY was going to meet a man referred to as "FRAN" (possibly FRANCIS CURRY) in a little while.

BERT, last name unknown, apparently received a call at CAMPAGNA's home from an unidentified man and a discussion was had about the fact that BERT had taken a Civil Service examination for an individual called HILL (last name unknown). Also BERT was informed by the unknown man that he, BERT, should get one of "those spots." The unknown man said that if BERT should see

"PAT," he should tell "MAT" to remind "[illegible]" not to forget him if "they ever put a Judge in there or something like that."

The remainder of the above calls were of a personal nature concerning health of callers, weather and Christmas greetings.

12/26/47 - Three calls were made from the CAMPAGNA residence by an unknown man. One of the calls was possibly made by LOUIS CAMPAGNA to Dr. WALTER LAWRENCE, Berwyn, Illinois, and Christmas greetings were exchanged. The other two calls were of a personal nature concerning dinner, parties and plans for the evening's entertainment.

RE: LOUIS CAMPAGNA, was, et al;
BRIBERY; PAROLE MATTERS

Dear Sir:

Rebulet 12/22/47 and my letters of 12/13/47 and 12/20/47.

In accordance with instructions set forth in referenced Bureau letter, two copies of my letters dated 12/13/47 and 12/20/47 are being enclosed for the New York Office. To supplement my letter of 12/13/47, it should be noted that the total calls reported by CGO-5681 were 19 calls in and 10 calls out. Among these calls, only two appeared to have any significance at the present time and were accordingly summarized.

A resume of information supplied by CGO-5681 for the period from 12/19/47 through 12/26/47, is set out as follows:

12/19/47 - Two calls were made and four calls were received by members of the CAMPAGNA family, all of which were of a personal nature, such as shopping, Christmas greetings and the fact that LOUIS CAMPAGNA was at that time in the country.

12/20/47 - Two calls were made and two calls were received by members of the CAMPAGNA family, including LOUIS CAMPAGNA. All of the above calls were of a personal nature, such as shopping and Christmas greetings.

12/21/47 - Three calls were made and two calls were received by members of the CAMPAGNA family. Four of the calls were of a personal nature concerning Christmas greetings and entertainment. One call from TONY RICCI to LOUIS CAMPAGNA has been previously referred to in a letter from New York to the Bureau and Chicago dated 12/22/47.

12/22/47 - Three calls were made and one call received by LOUIS CAMPAGNA and his family. All of the above calls were of a personal nature concerning shopping, health and a cancelled appointment with an unidentified lawyer.

straightened out all his obligations. GICE asked BECKY if "RED" was mentioned and was told "No." The conversation indicated that "RED" and JIMMY CROWLEY may be identical, and it is pointed out that JAMES CROWLEY of Chicago is President of the Chicago Bartenders Union. The conversation did not identify JIMMY CROWLEY as being the individual connected with the Bartenders Union.

Another call was made by an unknown man to his wife at Marquette 0380, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, which was indicated to be the LaSalle Hotel. The unknown man requested Room 318, and in the conversation with a woman, presumed to be his wife, she asked, "How about the police?" and the unknown man answered, "No, I shook that off." The balance of this conversation pertained to the purchase of candy and to Christmas greetings.

The other call made on this date pertained to an inquiry about a Cadillac automobile.

12/24/47 - Two outgoing calls were reported, being of a personal nature and concerning Christmas gifts.

12/25/47 - One outgoing call was made, of a personal nature.

12/26/47 - No calls were made on this date.

Rebulet 12/22/47 and my letters of 12/13/47 and 12/20/47.

In accordance with instructions set forth in referenced Bureau letter, two copies of my letters dated 12/13/47 and 12/20/47 are being enclosed for the New York Office. To supplement my summary letter of 12/13/47, it should be noted that the total number of telephone calls reported by CGO-5682 was three calls. These three calls reported conversations of a personal nature and of discussion to find CHARLES GIOE's apartment.

12/20/47 - Eight outgoing calls and one incoming call were reported on this date. PAUL DE LUCIA called an unlisted number, Albany 9077, the subscriber being FRANK ESPOSITO, 1316 North Kedvale Avenue, Chicago. The call was incompleted. The remaining calls on this date pertained to shopping, Christmas, and personal affairs.

12/21/47 - Two outgoing and two incoming calls were reported on this date, all of which pertained to illnesses, household problems and personal affairs.

12/22/47 - Six outgoing and six incoming calls were reported on this date.

FRANCIS CURRY called PAUL DE LUCIA and discussed a possible meeting with PAUL at his farm in Lisbon. The balance of the conversation pertained to the possible hiring of an unknown individual to work on the DE LUCIA farm.

A call was made by PAUL DE LUCIA to JOHN VIGNOLA, 930 Lathrop, River Forest, Illinois, requesting JOHNNY to come over right away. It is noted that this address is very close to that of DE LUCIA.

The balance of the calls made on this date pertained to shopping, arrangements for visits, Christmas affairs and personal affairs.

12/23/47 - Three outcoming and two incoming calls were reported on this date.

One call was made by LUCILLE, last name unknown, to PAUL DE LUCIA and LUCILLE requested PAUL to give her "JOE's" address in Florida. PAUL stated several times he did not know this address and suggested that she call "JOE."

The balance of the calls on this date were about grocery purchases, beauty appointments and personal affairs.

12/24/47 - Four outgoing calls were reported on this date, all of which pertained to Christmas presents, appointments and personal affairs.

12/25/47 - Six outgoing and three incoming calls were reported on this date.

Director, FBI
12/31/47

PAUL DE LUCIA called FRANCIS CURRY in Joliet, Illinois, and a discussion was had of the various Christmas presents received by the two individuals and their families and about PAUL DE LUCIA meeting with CURRY in the near future.

An incoming call was received on this date from EUGENE BERNSTEIN, tax attorney for DE LUCIA and LOUIS CAPAGNA, to the residence of DE LUCIA. PAUL DE LUCIA was not there and BERNSTEIN told the recipient of the call to give the DE LUCIA family his Christmas greetings.

The balance of the calls were Christmas greetings to or from the DE LUCIA family.

12/26/47 - Three outgoing calls and four incoming calls were reported on this date.

One call in was from EUGENE BERNSTEIN to PAUL DE LUCIA. Arrangements were made whereby BERNSTEIN would meet with DE LUCIA at DE LUCIA's farm on Sunday, December 28, 1947. A discussion was held about the closing of the books for an unknown business or firm.

Another call was made by PAUL DE LUCIA to the home of FRANCIS CURRY, CURRY not being at his home at this time. PAUL told the person called to tell CURRY he would meet CURRY at DE LUCIA's farm on December 27, 1947.

The balance of the calls on this date pertained to the purchase of flowers and personal affairs.

Dear Sir:

Rebulet 12/22/47 and my letters of 12/13/47 and 12/22/47.

In accordance with instructions set forth in referenced Bureau letter, two copies of my letters dated 12/13/47 and 12/22/47 are being enclosed for the New York Office. To supplement my summary letter of 12/13/47, it should be noted that the total calls reported by CGO-5680 were 30 incoming calls and 26 outgoing calls. The calls not summarized in the aforementioned letter of 12/13/47 pertained to shopping, farm repair work, appointments, insurance and personal affairs.

A resume of information supplied by CGO-5680 for the period from 12/19/47 through 12/26/47, is as follows:

12/19/47 - Twelve outgoing calls and five incoming calls were reported on this date. One call was made by FRANK SERPICO, an architect located at 6328 North Legett, Chicago, Illinois, and pertained to an appointment that SERPICO had with PAUL DE LUCIA.

An incoming call was made by FRANCIS GURRY (alleged Syndicate member from Joliet, Illinois) to PAUL DE LUCIA and the discussion centered around farm bills to be paid, farm work, farm machines, and farm help.

Another call was made by NANCY DE LUCIA (wife of PAUL DE LUCIA) to "MAC," last name unknown, who is NANCY's brother. The conversation concerned a loan from PAUL DE LUCIA to "MAC" in order to keep the "Picture Lounge," 199 North LaSalle, in operation. The conversation indicated that "MAC" was the owner of the "Picture Lounge." The balance of the calls pertained to insurance, automobiles, farm problems and personal affairs.

Mrs. GIOE: BILL WITT just called. He said you called. He was over to PETEs, and about fifteen minutes ago he started to go home. So I said you must call him from outside.
CHARLIE: I'll call him up there.
Mrs. GIOE: That address of MOLLY GROSSMAN is 31 E. First St., New York City.

CHARLIE GIOE to ROCKY _____.
ROCKY: It was taken care of. The party received a letter from his mother.
CHARLIE: After all these months?
ROCKY: That's right. Just forget about everything -- everything is all right.
CHARLIE: Did the guy acknowledge that it had been taken care of a long time ago?
ROCKY: No, he just got it or something. Wait, I'll read it to you. It says, "Seeing this is a tough time of the year on small business, I was happy to hear that CHARLIE straightened out all his obligations and is doing well again. His location is perfect. I wish him nothing but luck. So you never --
CHARLIE: Yea?
ROCKY: "have to worry about anything."
CHARLIE: But -- I mean to say -- isn't that strange? You remember I checked up -- you know I said I had a guy do it -- and I got the guy -- the guy has the receipt for it and everything. CHARLIE: Yea.
ROCKY: Yea. I wrote to him about that and he didn't say anything about him at all.
GIOE: Maybe that was the big thing.

CHARLIE: O.K. then. Listen, whenever you write, tell him you are inquiring about RED too, see? Because I'd like to do something about the guy, and I want to know if the thing got in there.
ROCKY: Well, I don't think RED had made any squawk. Otherwise he would have said something about it.
CHARLIE: Well no, no, no. He won't make any squawk anyway, one way or the other, you understand -- he won't tell -- the only way I happened to know that it got there was for BILL to ask him -- to say that CHARLIE wants to know if that thing ever got in there.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to my letter of December 13, 1947.

There follows a resume of information obtained from CGO-5681 for the period from 12/11/47 through 12/18/47.

12/11/47 - 7 calls made by CHARLOTTE CAMPAGNA to the following:

JOE at Utility Engineering Company; HAZEL, ANGIE, and LOUIS CAMPAGNA at Berrine Springs, Michigan; JOE CAMPAGNA at Utility Engineering Company, and two calls to MIKIE (Phonetic). Subject matter of these calls was of personal nature concerning daughter's automobile, Cardinal football game tickets, light bulbs, and anticipated trip of Mrs. CAMPAGNA to Berrien Springs, Michigan.

JOE CAMPAGNA called girl named MARGE, possibly JOE's wife, regarding three-wheeled bicycle.

DOROTHY CAMPAGNA called two girls named LUCILLE and MARIE concerning DOROTHY's automobile and other personal matters.

12/12/47 - DOROTHY CHARLES (believed to be LOUIS CAMPAGNA's daughter) to CHARLIE re repair of car.

CHARLOTTE CAMPAGNA to MARGE, asking for MIKE (phonetic).

CHARLOTTE CAMPAGNA to MIKE (phonetic) about bill for lumber used on farm.

Unidentified man to DOROTHY CAMPAGNA CHARLES who instructed DOROTHY to contact DAVID SHEETZ at Oxford, Indiana, and tell him not to pay any bills. SHEETZ presumably works on CAMPAGNA farm.

several Chicago persons were mentioned during this call including persons whose first names were PAUL and CHARLOTTE. There was insufficient descriptive data during the call, however, to determine who these individuals definitely were.

"PAUL", of course, could possibly refer to PAUL DE LUCIA and "CHARLOTTE" to Mrs. CHARLOTTE CAMPAGNA, wife of subject LOUIS CAMPAGNA. The call however was purely social in nature and nothing of particular significance or of value to the investigation of the instant case was noticed therein.

The second call of possible significance was made by TONY RICCI on December 12, 1947 when he attempted to call a Mr. COPPOLA at the Probation Office, County Court, Schermerhorn Street, Brooklyn, New York. COPPOLA however was not available at the time.

It will be recalled that one TONY COPPOLA of the Probation Office, County Court, Schermerhorn Street, Brooklyn, New York, was previously involved in the investigation of this case and questioned by Agents of this office as to whether he was the individual who contacted Judge JOHN BRIGHT of the Southern District of New York and requested a reduction in the sentence of LOUIS CAMPAGNA.

It is noted that TONY COPPOLA at the time denied this and stated that he had no recollection of ever meeting Judge BRIGHT or of speaking to him in the interest of anybody.

Information concerning TONY COPPOLA is set forth in the report of Special Agent Charles A. Donelan dated October 13, 1947 at New York, on page 18 and following.

The third call during the abovementioned period which possibly concerned this case was made by TONY RICCI on December 14, 1947.

On the latter date, RICCI made a long distance call to Chicago at Stanley 3417 and requested to speak to "LOUIE". A woman named MABEL told TONY that LOU would not be back until the middle of the week and that he was up in the country. TONY mentioned that he would give him a call "up there".

Letter-Director
NY 58-490

December 26, 1947

The remainder of the 51 calls consisted of purely household matters or local activity on the part of TONY RICCI or CLEO RICCI.

As in the past any particularly pertinent calls will be reported to the Bureau and Chicago by separate letter or teletype.

PAROLE MATTERS

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter of December 22, 1947 to the Chicago Division, copy to the New York office, setting forth instructions as to the reporting of information from the technical surveillances presently in operation in those divisions.

Pursuant to the above, the Bureau is advised that from 1:20 PM, December 5, 1947, the time of installation, to December 20, 1947 inclusive, Confidential Informant NYT 466 reported that there were 21 incoming calls and 30 outgoing calls to or from the apartment of TONY RICCI, 125 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, telephone Gedney 6-1179.

Of this total of 51 calls during this period, only three could be construed as possibly pertinent to the case under investigation.

The first of these was a call placed by Mrs. CLEO RICCI on December 10, 1947 to Mr. WALTER HUNAN of St. Louis, Missouri, concerning which the Bureau and the Chicago Division were previously advised by my letter of December 13, 1947.

The above call indicated that CLEO RICCI, who used the name of LEO WILDE (ph), is probably a former resident of the city of Chicago or of St. Louis and a former girl friend of this WALTER HUNAN. The names of

Further reference is made to the letter dated December 15, 1947, from the Chicago Office to the Director entitled "HERMAN FRANK BANNING, was; ET AL, NATIONAL STOLEN PROPERTY ACT." The additional investigation requested in this case by the U. S. Attorney at Chicago can be broken down into the following five categories:

1. Determine association between Eugene Bernstein and Anthony Accardo.

3. Determine association between Accardo, Louis Campagna and Paul DeLucia.

4. Determine association between Accardo and Joseph Imburgio Bulger.

5. Determine identities of subscribers to telephone numbers furnished by U. S. Attorney.

With respect to the last three categories noted above, investigation has been completed. [redacted] b3 Grand Jury holding hearings in this case. The only remaining investigation is the [redacted] released by the Grand Jury. Investigation is continuing with reference to the development of information concerning the association between Bernstein and Accardo. This investigation is being conducted by the Chicago Division and involves the determination of an individual so far identified only under the name Dillon, who was a guest at the Sheraton Hotel, Chicago, from August 12 through August 14, 1947. Investigation is also continuing to identify the Henry Steinborn who received a telephone call from a guest at the Muehlebach, using the name Frank Murphy. Murphy, so far not definitely identified, was apparently associated with Bernstein at the time subjects were paroled, and it is indicated that Murphy may be an alias of Accardo.

Investigative reports covering investigation requested by the U. S. Attorney so far completed have been made available to him. The results of information secured from the technical surveillances have been furnished to Mr. Peyton Ford, The Assistant to The Attorney General, inasmuch as the surveillances were requested by him on a confidential basis.

Additional investigation requested by the U. S. Attorney at Chicago was called to the attention of the Attorney General. Mr. Ford advised that the Attorney General desired all investigation requested by the U. S. Attorney be conducted. The Chicago Division was advised of this and instructed to teletype the Bureau of any additional requests made by the U. S. Attorney for further investigation. There have been, however, no additional requests by him reported by the Chicago Division other than the one originally made.

December 11, 1947 (Continued) - TIM DINEEN called PAUL DE LUCIA concerning pumps for PAUL's farm. DINEEN instructed DE LUCIA to contact a Miss BEE at Allen Manufacturing Company as a person by the name of "MAC" could estimate the job for installation. DINEEN possibly may be identical with an individual of the same name who wrote a letter to the Parole Board for DE LUCIA.

Twelve other calls were made to or from the DE LUCIA Residence concerning personal matters such as school, family affairs, shopping, etc.

December 12, 1947 - WILLIE to PAUL DE LUCIA. WILLIE is believed to be employed by DE LUCIA at DE LUCIA's farm in Lisbon, Illinois. PAUL DE LUCIA instructed WILLIE to have his oldest son take "TOBY" to JOHN MOORE to see if MOORE could do anything for "TOBY". It is noted that an alias of CLAUDE MADDOX is JOHN MOORE.

Five other calls to or from various members of the family involve conversation concerning DE LUCIA's farm, appointments, plans for New Year's Eve., etc.

December 13, 1947 - PAUL DE LUCIA called WILLIE at a number in Chicago wherein there was an appointment made by WILLIE to see PAUL on Monday, and WILLIE asked, "Is everything all right with you?" PAUL at conclusion stated, "Dont talk".

Thirteen other calls were made either to or from the DE LUCIA home to various members of the family concerning personal matters such as work at DE LUCIA'S farm, poker parties and appointments.

December 14, 1947 - Eight calls made to or from members of the DE LUCIA family concerning personal matters such as the whereabouts of PAUL DE LUCIA and his family, funeral of JOHNNY VIGNOLA's sister, etc.

December 15, 1947 - Seven calls to or from members of the DE LUCIA Family concerning personal matters such as shopping, wake at Rago Brothers Undertakers, gifts, showers and appointments.

December 16, 1947 - NANCY DE LUCIA to PAUL DELUCIA. Discussion of a shower had for MARIE DE LUCIA the previous evening. NANCY stated that CLARISE did not come because she was in Florida. (This possibly may be CLARISE ACCARDO, Wife of ANTHONY ACCARDO.) Also CHARLOTTE CAMPAGNA did not come because she was at her farm. The remainder of the conversation, which was lengthy, was an argument about the fact that an unknown individual was not invited to the shower.

Nine other calls to or from members of the DE LUCIA Family concern personal matters such as social affairs, wedding presents and theater.

December 17, 1947 - MIKE SACHS to PAUL DE LUCIA, which involved a discussion concerning SACHS calling that evening at the DE LUCIA home and bringing with him a box. MIKE advised that he would bring his "kid" with him, who would help. MIKE inquired as to whether J. B. was home, and was advised by PAUL that he didn't know. However, PAUL believed somebody was there. MIKE requested LOUIE's telephone number, and was advised by PAUL that he would have it when MIKE arrived.

Seven other calls to or from members of the DE LUCIA Family were of a personal nature concerning such matters as shopping, five cases of liquor to be placed in a locked closet on DE LUCIA's farm, rabbits and appointments.

December 18, 1947 - Seven calls to or from members of the DE LUCIA Family of a personal nature concerning DE LUCIA's Cadillac, appointments, birth records, shopping, etc.

A great portion of the above conversations were carried on in Italian.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to my letter of December 13, 1947.

There follows a summary of the information obtained from CGO-5680 for the period from December 11, 1947 through December 18, 1947.

December 11, 1947 - A person named LEONARD to PAUL DE LUCIA regarding the cashing of a check. PAUL asked LEONARD why he did not cash the check, and PAUL stated that the people in Saint Louis lose so much time by sending a check.

Unknown Man to PAUL DE LUCIA. Unknown Man says he has a note for PAUL, and that the unknown man had a lot of trouble "up at that place" and had to get rid of the manager.

MARY DE LUCIA to person called "MOM", presumably Mrs. DE LUCIA. MARY asked what the telephone number was and was advised that the number must be on the phone but she was too busy in the kitchen and hadn't had time to look at it. It is believed from the conversation that a new telephone may have been installed in the DE LUCIA home.

Mr. MOSKOWSKI (Ph) called PAUL DE LUCIA asking if it was all right to come in there today. MOSKOWSKI was assured that it was, and stated he would be over for a visit.

to make arrangements for a man named BILL WEBB to examine the tax return of an unknown tavern so that GIOE would know the amount of business done by this tavern. HAPPY directed GIOE to tell WEBB to see GUS MANUELI (ph) in the Finance Department, Collection Section of Revenue Department of Illinois. MANUELI is located on the second floor, Burnham Building, Chicago, and was referred to by GIOE as a precinct captain.

GIOE stated ROCKY, last name unknown, told him that MANUELI would be able to furnish the information he desired.

12-16-47 Four calls to or by Mrs. CHARLES GIOE from woman named ELAINE, to CHARLES GIOE from an unknown woman at the Drake Hotel and from person named HAPPY, concerning personal matters such as health, dinner, appointments and knitting.

CHARLES GIOE to "HAPPY". Discussion about the fact that tax bills, supposedly to be obtained from GUS MANUELI, were not available and would have to be obtained from Springfield. Tavern on which bills are to be examined is the 740 Corporation, 740 W. Madison Street. Individual named FRANK PETERS will go from Chicago to Springfield to obtain information.

CHARLES GIOE to TED STACEY (ph). Discussion about toothbrush manufacturer and the sale of GIOE to an unknown company believed to be Consolidated Wire and Associated Companies of certain equipment by GIOE. STACEY states that if this equipment would be sold to the Consolidated Wire by GIOE and a profit would be made by GIOE that he would be required to pay income tax twice because of the fact that he was selling it to himself.

Call from WITT or WEBB (ph) to MANUELI, who advised that the information regarding 740 Corporation would be ready shortly.

Call from GUS MANUELI to WITT (ph). Discussion about taxes paid by an unnamed corporation, which, according to WITT, was not the correct information. WITT again mentioned 740 Corporation and the fact that the name might be HALLSON.

12-16-47 Call from WITT to SAM ZEIGLER at Central 8398, which number is listed to the "Famous 740", 740 W. Madison Street, Chicago. WITT inquired as to the name of the company and was informed that it was the Hallson Liquor Corporation.

CHARLES GIOE to PAT STACEY. General discussion of toothbrush vending machines.

12-17-47 No calls.

12-18-47 Unknown man, believed to be GIOE, to MARSH (ph). MARSH, seemingly an attorney, was to draw a lease for five years as of May 1 with a five year option at $1,000. GIOE referred to the fact that when SIDNEY gets back that he will get in touch with TOUGHEY.

SIDNEY referred to may be identical with SIDNEY KORSHAK, who is known to be out of town at the present time.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TAMM
MR. ROSEN
MR. TOLSON
MR. NICHOLS

This morning Congressman Fred E. Busbey of Illinois called to see me and during the course of the conversation he referred to the investigation which this Bureau has conducted into certain alleged irregularities of the parole of a number of Chicago hoodlums. The Congressman stated that the Chairman of his Committee, Congressman Hoffman has been endeavoring to obtain from the Attorney General a copy of the Bureau's report in this matter but to date the Attorney General has declined to furnish the same. Congressman Busbey stated he intended to obtain a copy of this report and proposed to make a speech on the Floor of the House about it until the report was made available to him. He stated he was also seeking the income tax returns of the persons involved in this matter as he understands that prior to granting the paroles a compromise had been effected in the income tax cases of these persons.

The Congressman stated that he had no criticism to make of the Bureau except that he had at the Committee Hearing yesterday made the statement that after he had communicated with the Attorney General originally and requested investigation that two Agents of the FBI of our Chicago office called to see him and that he gave to them then all the information that he had. He said that he stated further, however, that neither these two Agents nor anyone else from the FBI had contacted him subsequently to ascertain whether he had obtained any additional information and that he thought this was unusual as he believed the Bureau would be interested in ascertaining what he subsequently might develop through his own inquiries.

I told the Congressman that I assumed that the reason the Agents did not subsequently contact him was because they assumed that he, the Congressman, would contact them if he obtained any additional information which he considered would be of interest to the Bureau. I told the Congressman that if he had any additional information which he felt this Bureau should have in this matter I would be glad to have him again interviewed. He stated that interviewing him now would be impracticable because he did not know what was in our report, and not knowing what was in our report he would be unable to determine what he should give us and it is for this reason that he is desirous of obtaining a copy of the report from the Attorney General. He stated that should he obtain a copy of the report and find it did not cover all the matters of which he has knowledge then, of course, he would be compelled to bring that to the public's attention.

While I recognize that this report has been very carefully reviewed by Inspector Purvis, I would like to have it again gone over very carefully by Messrs. Tamm and Nease and then reviewed by Mr. Carlson of the Inspection Division so that we can make sure that we have covered each and every angle of this situation. It would appear that this report will ultimately be one of public controversy and I want to make certain that the Bureau has fully performed its coverage of the matter.

SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM

In re: Tony Ricci
alias Goble,
125 Ocean Parkway,
Brooklyn, New York.

Continued investigation for identification of the above-named individual revealed the following information, which supplements memorandum dated November 3, 1947.

Interview of Mr. Samuel Rothschild, an officer of the Caton Park Estates, Inc., which owns the apartment house at 125 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, New York, disclosed that apartment 6B was originally leased by Mrs. Anna Friedman, then residing at 217 Beverly Road, Brooklyn, New York, on June 18, 1940. The lease has been renewed several times since that date but Rothschild stated that he has not seen Mrs. Friedman in several years. The apartment consists of four rooms and two baths for which the rent is $110 on the basis of a lease signed October 1, 1947, to run until September 30, 1949. He stated that the rent is paid in cash by the person believed to be Tony Ricci, although Rothschild said he does not know him by that name. Information received from the superintendent at 125 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, New York, revealed that Ricci or Goble was seen using an automobile bearing license plate 2L 9139. The automobile is a 1947 Oldsmobile registered under the name of John Flaherty, 1070 Nostrand Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, according to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

Check made of the Selective Service records failed to disclose a registration for Tony Ricci alias Goble alias Friedman. His brother, Pasquale Ricci, had registered from the address of 476 Clinton Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, stating that he was born at Viesta, Italy, January 30, 1895.

A follow-up on the background of Pasquale Ricci, brother of Tony Ricci, revealed that Pasquale Ricci was naturalized on December 16, 1920, at the Eastern District Court, Brooklyn, New York. His naturalization papers state that he was born in Viesta, Italy, January 30, 1895, and that he had migrated from Naples, Italy, on December 22, 1897, arriving in New York on January 12, 1898, aboard the S.S. Trojan Prince. This information was given to Mr. Harold S. Manley of the Investigation Section of the Bureau of Naturalization and Immigration, 70 Columbus Avenue, New York, N. Y., since it is believed that Tony Ricci may have migrated to the United States at the same time his brother, Pasquale, came to the United States. Mr. Manley is conducting an investigation and is to advise of his findings and any additional information he can obtain on the citizenship of Tony Ricci.

Inquiry of the New York Telephone Company disclosed that there is a special unpublished telephone listed under the name of Mrs. Anna Friedman in apartment 6B, 125 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, New York, where Ricci is believed to be residing. The number is Gedney 6-1179 and attached herewith is a record of the toll calls from June 22, 1947 to October 20, 1947, which were charged to that telephone number. The record reveals numerous calls to Chicago, Illinois, and one to "Madden, Hot Springs, Arkansas", who may be Owney Madden. The record further reveals that calls were made to Chicago, Illinois, and from Chicago, Illinois, under the names of Ricci and Gobel or Goble.
